About our speaker...

Hello! My name is Ruth, and I am so excited to be joining you all in October for the "Getaway" weekend.

I have a great love for Mothers' Union and the wonderful work your branches are doing throughout the year. You may feel that it is quite ordinary or even insignificant but in God's hands, the little that we bring can have a huge impact. And that's exactly what we will be thinking about during this lovely getaway weekend – how God's glorious treasures are in our very ordinary "jars of clay"!

Together with my husband, Andrew I have been a missionary for that last 34 years working in both the UK and Ireland as well as across Europe. We feel like very ordinary (and unlikely) people who have the privilege to share in God's wonderful mission – bringing His kingdom into our communities, as it is in heaven.

We have two beautiful grown up daughters but it often feels as if our family is much, much bigger as we care for a small church made up of all sorts of people from different backgrounds and different nations.

In my "spare" time I am editor of The Scribe magazine for Kilmore Diocese and editor of Ireland's Christian magazine, VOX. From time to time, I have helped the Church of Ireland's Council for Mission.

I'm looking forward to being with you for the weekend.

Bless you

Ruth x

Our aim for the getaway is to bring members and friends together. Give each other support, connect with old friends and make new friends. Taking "time out" full of fun and fellowship in a relaxed way.

But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed;
